January Sale Capes, Jackets

Two special lots for Friday selling, or while they last-plenty of wearing time left. We want to close them out, so offer them at these low prices:

Cloth Capes that were $5.00 to $20.00; Friday your choice at $2.50, $5.00

Stylish Monte Carlo Coats, were $10 to $15; on Friday at $7.50, $10.00

-Second Floor,

THE JANUARY LINEN SALE

Starts Saturday. See papers tonight for particulars.

Vettes Dry Goods 60

WINTER BREAKFASTS of Buckwheat Cakes and Maple Syrup are 'he housewife's standby. She knows where to get the Buckwheat.

HERE OF COURSE

THE N. A. MOORE CO. FINE GROCERIES AND MEATS Chio and Illinois Streets. 'Phones 892.

THE THEATERS.

To-Day's Schedule.

GRAND.-Vaudeville, 2:15 and 8:15 p. m. PARK .- "McFadden's Flats," 2 and EMPIRE .- Burlesque, 2 and 8 p. m.

"The Vinegar Buyer."

It was said of Robert Louis Stevenson and his stepson, Lloyd Osbourne, when that stirring story, "The Wrecker," was issued with both names on the title page as joint authors, that Osbourne had sharpened the pencils while Stevenson had done the writing. In witnessing "The Vinegar Buyer," which the advertisements attribute to Herbert Hall Winslow with "suggestions by Ezra Kendall," one is inclined to believe that the playwright "framed up" the plot and situations while the comedian himself filled in the greater part of the dialogue "The Vinegar Buyer," as presented at English's yesterday afternoon, is commonplace, even hackneyed, in respect of the story it tells-and this is probably due to Mr. Winslow, who has never yet produced anything strikingly original; but the lines of the play are, at times, sparkling with humor that is quite refreshing-and this, ie is bound to believe, is due to Ezra Kendall, whose original ideas and ready wit have for many years kept him in a class all by himself as a public entertainer. Although Winslow has not shown any particular brilliancy in the invention of his lot, his characters have some semblance of reality, and with a really clever comedian to pilot them through the three cts, the play is not wholly uninteresting where, with less competent captains at the heim, it would fail to rouse any attention. Mr. Kendall's associate players are, with requirements, but the entertainment is so thoroughly dependent upon Kendall himself that without him it would resemble your New Year's plum pudding with the dums left out. Kendall dominates the formance from beginning to end, and here are no dull moments when he is on the stage. The play was seen in Indianapolls 20 recently that to review it in detail would be to tell a stale story. It isn't a story that could be made interesting in print anyway; it must have the beneof Kendall's presence in the telling. the comedian is always amusing; no performer ever had a keener sense of the ridiculous than he, and none ever possessed usiness of arousing the mirth of a theater full of people. The programme would have | John L. Griffiths. you believe that he is giving you a bit of character work-that he is one Joe Miller. of an Indiana country town. But he is really the same Ezra Kendall that you saw

The company remains about the same as when the play was first seen here. harles Bowser is good in the character of Sandy Talbott, as is Ed Chapman in the part of the liquor seller. Alee Stripe, and this city. Mr. Kerr and his bride will the other male characters are well sustained, save that of the plotting young law-William Henry Stripe. Roy Fairchild is east for this role and is just about of her guests, Miss Grosscup, of Chicago, as bad as could possibly be. Miss Marion Abbott is the best of the women of the play in the part of the divorced wife of the town drunkard, and little Rose Norris makes a natural country girl of the kind ound in the smallest villages. Miss Darlng does what little she has as Mrs. Arington acceptably, but Miss Lottie Alter is on affected and artificial in the ingenue character of Mildred Arlington to win much stinction. Mr. Kendall himself scored a bg personal success with his two large and Mrs. Harry Hicks home, and will be andiences. But he needs a better play

as a monologist in vaudeville; the difference being that you get more of him under

Musical Farce at the Park.

man, once wrote a series of "Sunday stories" for his paper dealing with the exaggerated types of New York's tenement district, and the comic artist of the same to remain during the legislative session. paper. Outcault, made a lot of ridiculous pictures in which an awe-inspiring "yellow kid -whatever a yellow kid is-was the central figure. An enterprising theatrical of the valley. The name cards were dainty manager recognized in the writer's yarns and the artist's pictures material for an uproarious farce-comedy, so he hired somewith nothing else to do to make a stage entertainment out of the collection of Sunday supplements, dubbed the show "McFadden's Flats" and sent it on the road. It has been on the road ever since and has been coming regularly to the Park every season for five years. It is now paying its annual visit, having opened its engagement yesterday with a New Year's matinee before an audience that packed the theater and welcomed the eminent McFadden, that impressive lady, Mrs. Murphy, the outrageous yellow kids-like Topsy, ple dash in and out of doorways, up and down trick stairways, around the entire stage from footlights to the "back drop," and goodness knows where else. The performers are always on the go; it's like the Red Queen and Alice in "Alice in the Looking Glass"-they don't dare to stop for fear of not being able to get started again. The show makes you laugh in spite of yourself. It has plenty of bright music and good specialties. Bobby Ralston, the dwarf comedian, who is a born fun-maker, is still the principal "vellow kid." and he has an able second in Jerry Sullivan, another diminutive comedian. Arthur Whitelaw as Tim McFadden, Harry Crandall as Jacob Baumgartner, Mae Donohue as Mrs. Murphy and William Patton, May Phelps, W. H. Mack and Woodruff Alexander, in other leading parts, are all good farce-comedy people. There is a chorus of pretty girls that can both sing and dance and all of the musical numbers were given in a splendid style. The show will doubtless fill the Park at every performance. It deserves big pa-

Amusement Notes.

All of the local amusement houses enjoyed excellent holiday business yesterday. At the Grand and Empire there was not room enough to hold the crowds who wanted to be entertained with specialty performances. The Grand has been doing a landoffice business throughout the week, and will probably continue drawing big audiences for some time to come, as the attraction booked for the coming week, the Great Lafayette road show, is an especially xxx

On account of the illness of the comedian Thomas Q. Seabrooke, his understudy, Fred Mace, was given a chance last week to appear in the leading comic part of "A Chinese Honeymoon." the musical comedy that has been such a continuous success at the Casino, New York. Mace made a pronounced hit upon his first appearance and has been making a hit ever since. In fact, he has done so well in the role that the Shubert brothers, who are managing the production, are thinking of placing him at the head of a road company to present "A Chinese Honeymoon" out this way during the spring.

Henry Kolker, once one of the favorites of the old Grand stock company in this city, has been engaged to head a stock company in Syracuse, N. Y., where he is well known and very popular. He is at the present time playing leading parts at Her Majesty's Theater in Montreal.

The English actor, E. S. Willard, has scored a success in New York in his new play. "All for Her." which he gave for the first time last Friday night, and is drawing large audiences. It is said to be a very pleasing, though not an original play. One critic sums it up in the following terse fashion: "It is another one of those plays that playwrights love to write, that actors love to act and that audiences love to see—a play in which the principal character sacrifices everything dear to him in life, except the center of the stage."

Mr. Frohman says that the rumor that Maude Adams would appear in the forthcoming production of "The Resurrection" is absurd. The chances are that Miss Adams will not play this season at all. Her health is a matter of too great importance for Mr. Frohman to allow her to act again until she has fully recovered from her long illness.

Fay Templeton as interlocutor and Nat Goodwin and Willie Collier as end menwhat do you think of that combination? It has been definitely arranged for these three to assume these positions in the "first part semi-circle" at the big minstrel performance to be given for the benefit of the Eagles at the New York Theater Jan. 18. That show should be worth going miles

And now William Gillette is to follow Sothern with a production of "Hamlet" in the near future and is carefully at work on the scenic arrangements. Five magnificent scenes are already under way, and it is said that Gillette will introduce details into his Shakspearian production that will prove surprises. From playing "Sherlock Holmes" to acting the role of Hamlet is a

Sousa will begin a season of band concerts to-night at the Queen Hall in London. It is reported that his coming has been eagerly awaited in the British metropolis for the last month. Besides being a great popular favorite in London, he has been advertised in a way that has opened the eyes of the good English folks. On every nibus in London the magic word. 'Sousa," in startlingly red letters, is to be

It is suspected that Weber & Fields have gone over, bag and baggage, to the Independent Booking Agency formed by the managers of Mrs. Fiske and Miss Crossman, together with James K. Hackett, as the music hall managers have decided not to put their touring affairs into the hands the syndicate.

That original Englishman, Bernard Shaw, who, like Mary McLane, loves the devil, is writing a play which deals with a de-scendant of Don Juan and introduces Satan as a principal character.

PERSONAL AND SOCIETY.

Miss Anna Stanton returned yesterday from a short visit in Richmond Mrs. Nannie H. Ross left yesterday for Anderson to visit Mr. and Mrs. C.

Eugenia B. McOuat will leave shortly for California to remain during the rest of the winter. Miss Emma Messing returned yesterday from Lafayette, where she has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Rice. Mrs. Alex. Taggart will be at home informally this afternoon for Mrs. William F. Odell, of Washington, D. C., who is her

Miss Pruden and Miss Harrlet Pruden, who are Mrs. Lewis Iliff's guests, will return to-morrow to their home in Day-Miss Rose Cavens and Miss Lillian Moore arrived yesterday from Lafayette to be the guests of Mrs. Mortimer Levering and Mrs. Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Rudy will entertain for their son Maj. W. Otto Rudy and wife, of Portland, Ore., this evening at their residence, 837 Park avenue. The Misses Stewart gave an old-fashioned Southern tea party last night in honor of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Myers, who will return to their home in Anderson to-day. The marriage of Mr. John Kerr and Mrs. Lillian Allison will take place Jan. 2 in sail May 1 for Scotland, to remain a year. Miss Anna Jillson entertained with a dinner of twelve covers last night in honor and Miss Cox, of Dubuque, Ia. Later the party attended the charity ball. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Emmett Coffin entertained a few friends with a theater party last night for their guests, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hough, of Chicago. Later the party went to the charity ball. Mrs. Hannibal Yount, of Covington, and Miss Eliza Chambers will leave to-morrow for New York. They will accompany Dr. their guests for several weeks. Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Maxwell, of the Colonial, gave a large dinner party yesterday evening in honor of their guests, Mr. and Mrs. John B. Brown, of Columbus, E. W. Townsend, a New York newspaper | O., and Mr. and Mrs. Lingly, of Chicago. Mr. Hoyt King and his sister Abbie, of Chicago, who have been spending the holidays with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Smith King, have gone to Springfield, Ill.,

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Temperly entertained with a 6 o'clock dinner last night. Covers were laid for twelve, and the table was prettily decorated with violets and lilies sketches of violets and New Year's bells. Mr. and Mrs. Temperly and their guests afterwards attended the charity ball at the German House. A New Year's tea yesterday was that given by Miss Josephine Morss in honor of her guest, Miss Watterson, of Louisville. The callers included both young men and young women. Mrs. S. E. Morss assisted her daughter in her hospitalities, and the other assistants were Miss Emily Winter, Miss Mabel Talbott, Miss Suemma Vajen Coleman, Miss Ina Hollweg, Miss Evadne Hayward, Miss Clare Wilson and Miss

A party of young people who spent the except one, who appeared blankly indiffer-past summer at Lake Maxinkuckee left ent. The surprised congressman asked for there are two of him—and all the other familiar characters that live in the flats that Townsend built.

From the first rise of the curtain the fun of the "hurrah," slap-bang species; peo-

Scott, Misses Eleanor Ruth and Mary Carey, Miss Lydia Latham, Miss Jane Ogle, Miss Eleanor Lemcke and Messrs. Alfred Ogle, Richard Barbee, Charles Latham, Robert Scott, Gale Van Winkle and Syl-

The marriage of Miss Jane Williams and Mr. William Henry Insley took place yes-terday at the home of the bride's mother at Corning, N. Y. The relatives only witnessed the ceremony. The guests included Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Williams, Miss Rose Kneffer and Miss Mary Williams, of this city, and Mr. Insley's sister from St Louis. Mr. and Mrs. Insley will return to this city to live and later will reside at their new home, No. 68 Woodruff Place, Mr. and Mrs. Williams, Miss Kneffer and Miss Williams will return home Sunday. ELWOOD WEDDINGS.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. ELWOOD, Ind., Jan. 1.-At the home of the bride's parents, Mr. George A. Matters, a prominent glassmaker, and Miss Pearl Ritter were married last evening, the Rev. L. C. Howe officiating. They will reside here. The same minister also married Benjamin Hughes and Miss Ethel E. Smith at his residence yesterday afternoon. The groom is an engineer and the bride comes of a prominent family near New Lancaster. Otto Clark, son of B. B. Clark, of this city, and Miss May Washington, daughter of a well to do farmer north of Hobbs were married at 9 o'clock this morning at the bride's home, by Rev. W. H. Green, of the First Methodist Protestant Church. They are spending the week at Indianapolis but will return here to make their home.

RECEPTION AND BAL MASQUE. Special to the Indianapolis Journal. VINCENNES, Ind., Jan. 1.-Miss Georgia Roush, daughter of Mayor George W. H. Roush, gave a New Year's reception and Hall to the young set of Vincennes society. It was one of the most elegant affairs ever given in this city and was attended by about one hundred representatives of the most select families of this historic old Miss Roush is one of the most vivadebutantes of Vincennes and made a charming hostess. Mesdames G. W. H Roush and James S. Pritchett, Mr. and Mrs. Edward F. Tindolph and Mr. Edward J. Julian and Miss Edna Pritchett were the chaperons. The toilets of the ladies were rich and elegant. GUNDER-ROBERTSON.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. BROWNSTOWN, Ind., Jan. 1.-George W. Gunder and Miss Aimee Robertson were married yesterday noon at the residence of the bride's father, Jonathan Robertson, Jackson county's representa-John Brazelton, of North Vernon, Ind., officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Gunder left for Indianapolis en route to Jackson, Mich. Mr. Gunder is deputy supreme commander of the Knights of the Maccabees and at present in charge of the organization of the State of Michigan for that order. Their home will be at Grand Rapids.

FITES-M'ELROY. Special to the Indianapolis Journal. GREENSBURG, Ind., Jan. 1.-Clayton Fites and Miss Hurdie McElroy were married at the home of the bride's parents at 8 o'clock this morning, the Rev. H. Morrow officiating. After a wedding break-fast they left for a brief wedding journey. They will live at Cleves.

COLTER-LIEBMAN. Special to the Indianapolis Journal. FORT WAYNE, Ind., Jan. 1.-The marriage of Miss Bertha Liebman and Mr. William H. Colter, of Bucyrus, O., was solemnized last night at the bride's home in this city, the Rev. E. N. Foster, of Coesse, Allen county, officiating. Many society people witnessed the nuptials. SKEAVINGTON-FOWLER. Special to the Indianapolis Journal. EVANSVILLE, Ind., Jan. 1.-Miss Ida Madden Fowler and Mr. John W. Skeavington were married at Oakland City last night, in the presence of a large number of friends. The groom is a merchant at Oakland City.

CITY NEWS NOTES.

Mrs. Cynthia Tomlinson, an old resident of Marion county, died yesterday at her home, three miles and a half west of the city on the National road. Mrs. Tomlinson was sixty years old and had been in poor health for some time.

Mary Kersey, a thirteen-year-old colored firl of 101 West Wilkins street, was reported missing to the police yesterday by her mother. The little girl left her home during the morning, and not having returned for dinner, her mother became alarmed and asked the aid of the police in a search for her daughter.

The Sunday evening services at the Sec ond Presbyterian Church are now being made unusually attractive musically. ery evening service is being precluded by an organ recital of four numbers. The numbers next Sunday evening will be "March of the Wise Men," "Ouboise Cavatina," Raff; "Pilgrims' Chorus," Wagner; "Elizabeth's Prayer," from Tannhauser," Wagner. There will be special numbers by the quartet and a solo by Mr. B. F. Miller, "Thy Rebuke Hath Broken His Heart," from Handel's "Messiah."

HOME DRESSMAKING HINTS.

By MAY MANTON. Blouses made with princess closings and strap trimmings that gives a stole effect are among the notable features of the season and appear to gain in favor week by week. The very stylish model illustrated combines both and includes, as well, the fashionable postilion and novel sleeves. As shown the waist is of waist cloth in a soft | white. ade of beige, the trimming bands, embroidered in cross stitch, with Bulgarian colors, held by drop buttons at the ends of the stole. All waistings and simple gown

4317 Woman's Blouse, 32 to 40 bust. materials are, however, equally appropriate and the trimming can be velvet, silk or lace in place of the embroidery. The blouse is arranged over a smoothly fitted lining that closes at the center front. The fronts are tucked to yoke depth at the shoulders and for their entire length at the center and are made to blouse slightly over the belt. The tucks at the center meet over the hems, through which the closing is made and, with those at the shoulders, are stitched with corticelli silk. The trimming, which gives a stole suggestion at the front, forms bands at the back that are applied over the waist on indicated lines. and are extended to form the postilion. The sleeves are full and are gathered into novel cuffs at the wrists. The neck is finished with a pointed stock and at the waist is worn a belt. The quantity of material required for the medium size is 51/2 yards 21 inches wide, 414 yards 27 inches wide or 214 yards 44 inches wide. The pattern 4317 is cut in sizes for a 34, 36, 38 and 40 inch bust measure. PATTERN COUPON For patterns of garment illustrated above send 10 cents (coin or stamps.)

Cut out illustration and inclose it in letter Write your name and address distinctly and state number and size wanted. Address Pattern Dept., The Journal, Indianapolis, Ind.

Allow one week for return of pattern. "I Be a Democrat."

Boston Transcript. Congressman Landis, of Indiana, tells of visiting a country school in his district and asking the boys how many would like to be President. All responded in the affirmative except one, who appeared blankly indiffer-

SOCIETY ASSEMBLED BRILLIANTLY AT GREAT ANNUAL BALL.

Socially and Financially the Function Exceeded Noteworthy Successes of Former Years.

ORNATE COLOR AND FLOWERS IN GERMAN

HOUSE AUDITORIUM.

Gowns Worn by Society Leaders Attractive in Elegant Simplicity-Those Seen on the Floor.

The German House was the scene of a brilliant assemblage last night, the occasion being the annual charity ball given by the executive committee of the Free Kindergarten and Children's Aid Society. masque ball to-night at Masonic Temple | Socially and financially the ball was one of the most successful of the affairs of the same kind which this organization has given for the sake of charity. The executive committee, the members of which are to be congratulated on the success of the evening, include Mrs. John Holliday, as chairman, assisted by Mrs. John B. Elam, Mrs. O. S. Runnels, Mrs. H. S. Tucker, Mrs. Benjamin Harrison, Mrs. J. H. Byers, Mrs. Alice Townley, Mrs. Louis H. Levey, Mrs. John W. Kern, Mrs. J. R. Carnahan, Mrs. Charles E. Dark, Mrs. J. H. Taylor, Mrs. Eddy M. Campbell, Mrs. Hugh H. Hanna, Mrs. George Hufford, Mrs. William E. English, Mrs. William Jeffries and Mrs.

Louis Hollweg. The ballroom at the German House was effectively trimmed in palms and with pale green and white bunting. The boxes, arranged the full length of the hall, were attractively draped with the bunting and lettered with gold letters. Numerous box parties were held by the boxholders and an opportunity for delightful social gatherings was thus afforded for those not caring to dance.

BOX PARTIES GIVEN. Mr. and Mrs. John H. Holliday, with a party of friends, occupied the box at the entrance of the hall, while Mr. and Mrs. Louis H. Levey and Mr. and Mrs. William H. Brown, with friends, were in the large double box at the head of the hall. In the other boxes were Mr. and Mrs. John B. Elam, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Hollweg, Dr. and Mrs. O. S. Runnels, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Tucker, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Kern, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Campbell, Mr. and Mrs Frank M. Fauvre, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh J. McGowan, Mr. and Mrs. Mortimer Levering. Mr. and Mrs. Booth Tarkington, Mr. and Mrs. George N. Catterson, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Murphy, and

Mr. and Mrs. Cortland Van Camp, with groups of their friends. Mr. George N. Catterson was in charge of the floor, being assisted by Mr. Fletcher Birch, Mr. Clarence E. Coffin, Mr. Fletcher Durbin, Mr. George Denny, Mr. Freeman Hibben, Mr. Gaylord Hawkins, Dr. Oscar N. Torian, Mr. Harold Hibben and Mr. Frederick H. Wiley. Hart's full orchestra, stationed on the stage, played for the dancing. Punch was served in the hallway, being presided over by Mrs. J. H. Byers, Mrs. James R. Carnahan, Mrs. Frank Carter, Mrs. Ragsdale and Mrs. Charles E. Dark. At 11 o'clock supper was served at small tables arranged in the large dining

The ball was largely patronized by the so-ciety people of the city and the gowns were exceedingly handsome. Those who were present included: Mrs. Louis Hollweg, gowned in lace over taffeta. Miss Julia Hollweg, in black net over white silk, and Miss Ina Mrs. J. H. Holliday, who wore black silk, fashioned with pink embroidered silk. Mrs. John W. Kern, who was gowned in white net, embroidered in roses. Mrs. Louis H. Levy, who wore blue panne crepe, trimmed with broad insertions of Mrs. Eddy Morris Campbell, gowned in black embroidered net, fashioned with lace over white taffeta.

HANDSOME GOWNS WORN. Mrs. Winfield T. Durbin, in a handsome costume of white satin and lace. Mrs. George N. Catterson, in blue point d'esprit. Her guest, Miss Carroll Hemingray, of Muncie, was gowned in white silk

Mrs. Caleb Denny, in yellow satin gown. Mrs. John B. Elam, gowned in a black Mrs. John C. New wore a gown of black lace with silver embelishment. Mrs. Robert Geddes, in a gray and white lace robe, fashioned with black velvet over Mrs. H. S. Tucker wore a dark blue go trimmed with applique lace. Miss Rena Tucker was in white organdie with red

Mrs. Lenora Smith was gowned in black spangled crepe. Miss Pratt was in white, with holly, and Miss Ruth Pratt wore a white tucked gown, fashioned with lace. Mrs. Cortland Van Camp was in white. Mrs. Herman Munk wore an embroidered silk mull over pale green silk. Mrs. Fred R. Brown was gowned in black, with white applique. Mrs. Charles Schurmann was in black. Mrs. Howard Schurmann wore a white eolian gown, with pearls. Thomas Taggart was in lavender crepe. Miss Taggart wore a pink flowered tissue and Miss Nora Taggart was in pink Mrs. Perley B. Raymond was gowned in white liberty satin, handsomely embroidered Mrs. Ovid Butler Jameson was in a black lace robe, made over orange colored silk. Mrs. John L. Griffiths wore a lavender Mrs. William Garrard Comly was gowned in dotted blue silk mull Mrs. W. H. Brown wore white, appliqued in grape design. Mrs. John T. Brush wore a white crepe gown, fashioned with lace.

Mrs. Marshall T. Levey wore black crepe OTHER GOWNS NOTICED. Miss Augusta Jameson was gowned in white eolian cloth, with pearls. Miss Mary Kurtz wore blue crepe.

d'sprit, over pink taffeta. Miss Clara Wilson was in white. Miss Ione Hayward, of Pana, Ill., wore pink embroidered flower organdie. Miss Ethel Cleland was gowned in a pink

Miss Florence Coffin was in white point

Mrs. Frederick A. Joss was in black silk. Mrs. John C. Dean was in a pale blue gown, with lace. Mrs. Lyman W. Louis wore pink liberty satin, embroidered in pink roses. Miss Bertha Fahnley was gowned in white crepe. Miss Ada Fahnley wore an embroidered net over pink taffeta. Their guest, Miss Albright, of Louisville, wore Miss McDermott was in lavender. Miss Josephine Morss was in white tissue. with yoke and sleeves of point d'esprit. Miss Watterson, of Louisville, who is her guest, wore white crepe. Miss Corella Taylor wore a black lace Miss Gladys Wynn wore a black silk gown, with sequin trimming. Miss Iris Wynn was gowned in pale green crepe. Mrs. Harold McGrew wore white broad-Miss Stella Adams was gowned in black Mrs. Frank Murphy wore a white chiffon gown, paneled with silver spangles. Mrs. Robert McOuat wore a blue crepe de chine gown. Miss Landers was in white lace over blue taffeta. Miss Kyle wore black liberty satin. Mera Tousey was gowned in pale Mrs. Fred Alexander wore a white lace Miss Emily Winters's gown was of pink

Mrs. Guy Hawkins was gowned in old rose crepe. Mrs. Don Price Hawkins wore a white silk, embroidered in rosebuds. Miss Susan Thompson wore a black lace

Mrs. Walter Fugate was gowned in black, with sheer yoke and rose embroidery. Miss Mae Culver wore a white lace gown, Mrs. Blanche Brown Seaton was in black

Miss Ethel Dorsey wore blue. Miss Hazel West wore a rose colored silk Miss Edna Kuhn wore black panne Mrs. Frank Van Camp was gowned in white crepe and panne velvet.

Mrs. Frank G. Wood wore a white organdie rown, embroidered in black. Mrs. Pierre Gray wore a net gown of white and pink, with spangles. Her guest, Miss Porterfield, of Richmond, was in black, jet

Miss Clara Lewis was in light blue silk, trimmed with grapes. A number of guests were present from out of town, among them being Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hough, of Chicago, with Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Coffin; Miss Cox. of Dubuque, Ia., and Miss Grosscup, of Chicago, with Miss Anna Jillson; Miss Carroll Hemingray, of Muncie, with Mr. and Mrs. George N. Catterson; Miss Grace Pendleton, of Monticello; Mr. Biglowe and Mr. Crawford, of Terre Haute, with Mr. Leonard Campbell; Mr. Lansing, of Culver; Miss Sally Hall and Will Hall, of Brazil; Miss Carrie Cohn and Bernard Cohn, of Muncie; Mr. Edgar Johnson, of Hammond; Mr. Paul Bagley, of Detroit; Miss Watter-son, of Louisville; Miss Albright, of Louisville; Miss Tudor, of Cincinnati.

Miss Martha Foster was gowned in a Persian silk, fashioned with white chiffon.

YEAR'S RECEPTIONS

MARION CLUB GREETED HUNDREDS OF ITS FRIENDS.

Open House Kept at University, Mc-Kinley, Americus and Other Clubs -At Rescue Mission.

Several hundred people called at the Marion Club, on North Meridian street, yesterday afternoon during the hours of the New Year's open house. The clubhouse was tastefully decorated for the occasion with holly, evergreen, ferns, palms and such plants and flowers as are in keeping with the holiday season, and presented a very attractive appearance. A reception committee, headed by Judge James M. Leathers, welcomed the guests and extended the felicities of the day. An orchestra located in the north hall behind a screen of palms rendered several selections, but aside from this there was no programme and the guests enjoyed themselves informally. Each guest was given a carnation as a souvenir of the affair.

The members of the reception committee were: Henry T. Hearsey, James M. Leathers, W. A. Bogardus, Dr. Eugene Buehler, V. G. Clifford, Frank C. Cutter, R. F. Davidson, Lawrence B. Davis, Oran Muir, Lew Shank, John W. Bowlus, Dr. R. W. Garstang, M. T. Levey, Frank W. Olin, C. O. Roemler, J. K. Robson, F. K. Shepard, W. A. Walker, Harry Negley, Norman Peck, Foster C. Shirley, Dr. John J. Kyle, Paul J. Azbill, Ralph Bamberger, R. M. Church-man, Charles E. Coffin, James S. Cruse, George L. Denny, Thomas C. Whallon, H. B. Martin, Charles L. Farrell, R. H. Bryson, T. E. Potter, sr., Dr. P. O'Rear, Leonard M. Quill, E. J. Robinson, F. K. Sawyer, William J. Taylor, Everett Wagner, A. B. Carter, James Manion and Frost C. King.

OTHER RECEPTIONS. The open house at the McKinley Club. Hamilton avenue and East Michican street. lasted throughout the afternoon, and was merged into an informal smoker last night. Each guest was expected to bring a supply of matches and the club furnished cigars, pipes and tobacco. A punch bowl was the center of attraction during the afternoon and a reception committee composed of George Fate, John A. Sweeney, William R. Sweet, Dr. J. T. Scott and others greeted the callers. A large number of guests were entertained.

The University Club kept open house during the day and evening and entertained number of the members and their friends. The affair was wholly informal. At the Americus Club the New Year's celebration took the form of a reception supper and dance last night. The reception opened at 9 o'clock and the supper was served at 11:30, after which there was dancing until an early hour this morning. New Year's day at the Columbia Club was marked by no formalities, and while there was no reception the number of members who spent a part of the day at the club was unusually large The Elks' clubhouse on Maryland stree was attractively decorated for New Year's and open house was observed all day and evening, although there was no formal re-

Services at Rescue Mission. At the Rescue Mission W. V. Wheeler and his helpers were kept busy yesterday afternoon giving spiritual and bodily com-

When the services began at 2 o'clock the | the university. Consequently there was a hall was entirely filled. The first speaker | desire to hear "his" glee club. was the Rev. Francis H. Gavisk, of St. John's Catholic Church. Father Gavisk said the new year is a time for reflection. Those who have erred seriously and who want to reform should cast one glance backward over their lives and see what had caused their downfall. Then they should look at the new year and see it in fitting occasion for each man and woman to think seriously of their lives. Other speeches were then made by the Rev. Owen Davies Odell, Rev. Hiram W. Kellogg, Judge Stubbs, William A. Daly and Caleb S. Denny. At the conclusion of the speaking Mr. Wheeler announced that lunch was ready. In the rooms adjoining the rear of the mission room several large tables were set and it was estimated that during the evening 500 guests were served to sandwiches, coffee and cake.

Open House at Y. M. C. A.

The Y. M. C. A. kept open house yesterday afternoon and evening, and made the first day of 1903 one long to be remembered in the annals of the institution. More friends of the organization were entertained than on any previous New Year's day, and the entertainment provided was more than usually satisfactory. From 2 p. m. until 10 p. m. the Y. M. C. A. kept open house for its senior members and their friends. The new rooms in the boys' department were thrown open and inspected. Refreshments were served and the Y. M. C. A. orchestra played. Supper was served at 6 o'clock to 110 news carriers. They were seated in the educational room and provided with a bountiful feast of sandwiches, pie, cake, pickles, cheese, candies and other dainties that the stomach of the small boy craves. Dr. Merle Pritchard entertained the youngsters during the supper with imitations. The supper was given by the Women's Circle of the boys' department. Mrs. William Kastner is president, Mrs. Coughlin vice president, Mrs. Chester Jackson secretary and Mrs. W. H. Masters treasurer.

Poor Farm Inmates. The inmates of the county Poor Farm

were remembered by the ladies of the Central Christian Church yesterday and many pounds of candies and nuts were sent them. The women inmates of the institution appreclated the thoughtfulness of the church women and showed their approval of the good things provided.

Thief Gets Useless Articles.

Two petty thieves yesterday despoiled Bernard Bauer, of 2311 South Meridian street, and H. C. Titman, 2256 North Pennsylvania street, of articles for which they can possibly have no use. During the afternoon Bauer left his light wagon standing in front of a store while he went inside to transact business. When he came out discovered that some one had stolen a West Ohio street and turned in an alarm.

THE JOURNAL'S

Art Calendars for 1903

Two three-sheet Calendars, each sheet specially painted by Miss Maud Stumm, THE FAMOUS WATER-COLORIST, of New York City.

Calendar No. 1 ALICE NEILSON ADELE RITCHIE EDNA MAY

Calendar No. 2 ANNA HELD LULU GLASER UIRGINIA EARLE

Each sheet devoted to an actress and executed in Maud Stumm's most

The Calendars are beautifully lithographed, from the original waterolor paintings, in twelve colors, on heavy pebble plate paper 12% inches igh by 10 inches wide. Each three-sheet is tied with a silk ribbon.

You could not buy this Calendar at an art or book store for less than

We bought 6,000 and can sell them at 15 cents each-mailed to any ad-When ordering state which Calendar you want and how many of A more beautiful CHRISTMAS or NEW YEAR GREETING would be hard to find. This is not a gaudy Calendar, but is an unusually beauti-

For the convenience of INDIANAPOLIS SUBSCRIBERS who have not 15 cents in change or stamps to send us, or who cannot call at the office, we will fill telephone or mail orders and add the amount to the regu-ful work of art. When you see one you will want several.

Address CALENDAR CLERK.

Both Phones.

Indianapolis Journal.

Ask for the Journal.

ackage containing three thousand printed | Investigation showed that the light was case. A morocco case containing a large

KENTUCKY UNIVERSITY BOYS THIRD CHRISTIAN CHURCH.

Patriotic Airs and Comic Specialties Prominent on Programme-Club's Armenian Director.

The glee club of Kentucky University made a notable conquest at the Third Chrisfort to men, women and girls. In addition | tion Church last night. The interest of lentiful supply of food with hot coffee the congregation in the club originated Waterbury (Conn.) American. were dispensed in one of the adjacent because the former pastor of the church, the Rev. Burris A. Jenkins, is president of

The concert last night satisfied all that the club is intelligently directed by John A. Shishmanian and that its members are possessed of true artistic talents. Mr. Shishmanian is the son of an Armenian who came to this country many years ago its infancy and think of the bright days it at the age of fifteen. He adapted himself will have. He said he thought it was a to new conditions and obtained an English education. He joined the Christian Church, married a Kentucky girl and returned to his native land and then to Turkey as a missionary of his adopted faith. His son is now twenty-three and a student of the university which prepared his father for his mission work. The father now lives in Constantinople. Young Shishmanian studied under the Hungarian pianist Hegyai, who was a pupil of Lizst. Besides be ing the director of the glee club he is the tenor soloist of it.

PERSONNEL OF CLUB. The pianist of the club is W. R. Winter of Logansport, Ind., who is also the organist of the First Presbyterian Church at Lexington. The reader and baritone soloist is Lindsay Smith, a graduate of oratory in the New England Conservatory, a pupil of C. A. White and a member of the Boston Symphonia. Another baritone is A. K. H. Brooks, of St. Louis, who is the exponent of the comic in the glee club's work. The club members are: First tenors, King and Rector; second tenors, Jackson, Swain and Shishmanian; basses, South, Redi and Brooks, firsts, and Belknap and Hall, seconds. The club is well organized and balanced.

Its programme last night was full of the glee club specialties. Among the medleys that "took" with the audience was the ensemble of patriotic airs-"Star-spangled Banner," "Yankee Doodle," "America" and 'Dixie." and its negro dialect comedy in song, "Old Noah's Ark," in which Mr. Brooks sang the solo parts. Another popular number of the programme was Mr. Shishmanian's arrangement of "Old Kentucky Home," which he sang with a humming accompaniment by the club. A special number on the programme which was encored was "The Battle Song." a native Armenian patriotic composition which was sung in the language by Mr.

showed excellence in technique, with effective phrasing and sympathetic tempo, He rendered a Brahms scherzo and for an encore gave the "Scraf Song" of Chami-After the concert the club was enter-

Mr. Winter gave two plano numbers. He tained at the home of J. M. Parkhurst, 814 North East street.

Fires on West Ohio Street. The fire department answered two calls to fires on West Ohio street last night Early in the evening some one saw an unusually large light in the restaurant at 22 bill heads which he was delivering. The caused by increase in the pressure of the other theft was that of a sample medicine gas burning under a coffee urn in the back case. A morocco case containing a large number of sample vials of various sorts of drugs was lost by Titman during the afterend of the dining room small fire in the cellar. The fire was caused by hot ashes being dumped from the fur-nace. It was extinguished by the occu-pants of the house before the arrival of the fire apparatus.

The Order of Eagles. A social entertainment was given by Indianapolis Lodge, No. 211, of the Fraternal Order of Eagles at the lodge rooms on North Illinois street last night. The New Year's celebration of the Eagles included in its programme cake walks, dancing, singing numbers and a two-round go between two amateur boxers, members of the ordet After the entertainment had been conc ed, the newly-elected officers, Otto Deluc president, Fred Schaub, trustee, and Harry Moran, treasurer, and others were installed

A banquet closed the evening's festivities The Front Returned.

The front of the car was damaged by

Many women and doctors do not recognize the real symptoms of derangement of the female organs until too late.

"I had terrible pains along my spinal cord for two years and suffered dreadfully. I was given different medicines, wore plasters; none of these things helped me. Reading of the cures that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has brought about, I somehow felt that it was what I needed and bought a bottle to take. How glad I am that I did so; two bottles brought me immense relief, and after using three bottles more I felt new life and blood surging through my veins. It seemed as though there had been a regular house cleaning through my system, that all the sickness and poison had been taken out and new life given me instead. I have advised dozens of my friends to use Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Good health is indispensable to complete happiness, and Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has secured this to me." -MRS. LAURA L. BREMER, Crown Point, Indiana, Secretary Ladies Relief

Corps. — $5000 forfeit if original of above letter proving genulneness cannot be produced. Every sick woman who does not understand her ailment should write Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass. Her advice is free and always helpful.